CLMD-2026-176

REPRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF BASA MATERIALS FOR MULTIGRADE SCHOOLS

To: Schools Division Superintendents

1. This has reference to Regional Memorandum CLMD 2026-062 re: Reproduction of Budget of Work (BOW) for Multigrade Teaching.
2. The Curriculum and Learning Management Division (CLMD) shall spearhead the reproduction and delivery of BASA Materials for Multigrade School Learners.
3. The BASA Program in the Philippines Department of Education is designed to improve literacy skills among Filipino learners. Its rationale is to provide transformative literacy practices that enhance reading instruction and comprehension.
4. The program aims to:
 - a) reform reading instruction to improve the quality of learning and teaching;
 - b) improve reading delivery systems to ensure that students receive the best possible reading instruction;
 - c) increase access to quality reading materials to support students' literacy development;
 - d) test innovative models for reading remediation and integrate ICT applications in reading classrooms to adapt to modern learning needs; and
 - e) train over 19,000 teachers to enhance their skills and effectiveness in teaching reading.
5. Expenses for the reproduction and distribution of the BASA materials shall be chargeable against the 2025 Support Fund for Multigrade Schools subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
6. The materials will be distributed to the Division Multigrade focals from the Regional Office. Further, Division Multigrade focals are advised to distribute the Budget of Work Printed materials to the identified MG schools and shall submit to the Regional MG focal a monitoring report of distribution and utilization including photo documentation of the distribution.
7. For more information contact Maria Isabel Rosios-Cunanan, EPS/ Regional MG focals through email mariaisabel.cunanan@deped.gov.ph
